LDF TRIBE SHARES CLOSINGS: PUBLIC SCHOOL, HEADSTART, DAYCARE, YOUTH CENTER
Closings start Monday, March 16 and Re-opening Will Be Announced When Known

As part of our commitment to sharing COVID-19 (Corona Virus) related updates, we have the following closings to share:

LDF Public School closed until further notice, beginning Monday March 16 until April 6 following Wisconsin Governor Tony Evers proclamation to close all K-12 schools until then. Parents will be notified should things change. Updates will be posted on all Tribal communications channels.

Little Dreams Daycare closed until further notice, beginning Monday, March 16. Parents will be notified by text with an expected re-opening date when it is known. Also, it will be posted on all Tribal communications channels.

Zaasijiwan Head Start closed until further notice, beginning Monday, March 16. Parents will be notified with an expected re-opening date when it is known. Information will be posted on all Tribal communications channels.

Abinoojiiyag Lac du Flambeau closed until further notice, beginning Monday, March 16. Parents will be notified with an expected re-opening date when it is known. Information will be posted on all Tribal communications channels.

As new developments happen, we will continue to communicate to ensure Tribal Members and Tribal Staff are informed. Please know we are making decisions based on recommendations of health officials while balancing our responsibility to both serve our community and protect our community, including those most vulnerable to this virus. Thank you for your consideration of this.

Respectfully

President Joseph Wildcat, Sr.
